Christmas Bingo Cards

Two games in one PDF: picture bingo for little kids who can't read yet, and word bingo for everyone else. Every card is different, and no two word cards share a winning line, so there's one winner at a time.

Ages 3 to adult · up to 12 players per game · US Letter

Inside

- 12 picture bingo cards (3 x 3, free middle square) with 20 Christmas pictures to color.
- 12 word bingo cards (5 x 5, free middle square) drawn from 40 Christmas words.
- Picture calling cards and word calling slips to cut out and draw from a bowl.
- A caller's checklist so you can check a winning card in seconds.

Print at 100% ("actual size") on US Letter or A4. Free for home and single-classroom use.

How to play Christmas bingo

Takes 10 minutes to set up and 10 to 15 minutes a game.

Pick your game

Picture bingo (the first 12 cards) is for ages 3 to 6: three in a row wins, and the calling cards show the picture so nobody needs to read. Word bingo (the next 12) is for readers: five in a row across, down or corner to corner.

Set up

Print one card per player. Cut out the calling cards or slips and put them in a bowl. Hand out markers: buttons, cereal, mini marshmallows or pennies, or let kids color the squares in.

Play

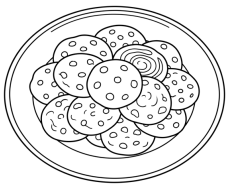

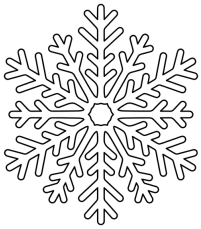

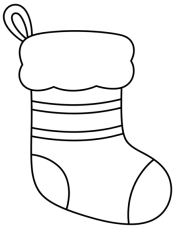

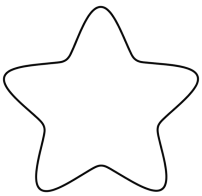

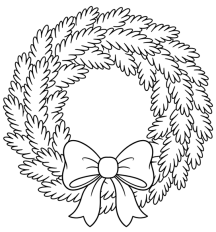

The caller draws a card, reads it out (and holds up the picture), then sets it aside. Players cover that square if they have it. The first to call "Bingo!" with a complete line reads it back, and the caller checks it against the drawn cards.

Variations

Four corners. Blackout (cover the whole card, a long game for a big party). Or play "pass the prize": every bingo wins the chance to steal a wrapped prize from another winner.
