Christmas Party Games for the Whole Family

Five games to print tonight: bingo, trivia in three levels, This or That, a word scramble and 60-second challenges. Enough for an hour of family game night, with every answer included.

Ages 4 to adult · 2 to 20 players · US Letter

Inside

- Christmas bingo: 10 different cards plus a caller's sheet and calling slips.
- Christmas trivia: 24 questions at kids, family and hard levels, with answers on the host sheet.
- This or That: 20 cut-apart cards to get everyone talking.
- Word scramble: 15 Christmas words, with an answer key.
- 60-second challenges: 12 cards using things you already have at home.

Print at 100% ("actual size") on US Letter or A4. Free for home and single-classroom use.

How to host

Everything here works for a family of four or a party of twenty.

Before everyone arrives

Print the bingo cards and calling slips, the trivia host sheet and a few answer sheets, and cut out the This or That and challenge cards. Put pencils and something to mark bingo squares (buttons, cereal, pennies) in a bowl.

A plan for an hour

Start with bingo while people trickle in: it needs no explaining. Then trivia in teams (mix ages so every team has a reader). Finish with 60-second challenges, which are loud, silly and end the night on a high. Keep This or That cards on the dinner table.

Mixed ages

Pair little kids with a grown-up on a team rather than giving them their own sheet. Trivia has three levels: let teams pick the level for each round, or ask kids-level questions to the youngest player on each team.

Prizes

Small and silly works best: a candy cane, first pick of the cookies, choosing the next carol. Let the winner of each game pick the next game.
